

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Larry Holland, who is retiring after 47 years of teaching, coaching, and driving the school bus; and,

Whereas, Larry graduated from Montrose High School, earned his bachelor's degree from Dakota State University in Madison, South Dakota, and master's degree from South Dakota State University in Brookings, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Larry began and ended his teaching and coaching career in Howard, South Dakota, serving 47 years with the Howard School District; and,

Whereas, Larry's passion for high school activities led him to serve numerous sports as a coach, athletic director, and official; and,

Whereas, Larry has devoted his life to the betterment of others through the field of education and has positively impacted thousands of lives in his various leadership roles; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan, and congratulate Larry on his retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 28, 2017, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
